THE DALTONS AGAIN.

THE GANG SAID TO BE NEAR KINGFISHER.

Bill Dalton Being Nursed by His Mother at the Dalton Farm Near that Place.

It is reported on what is thought to be creditable authority that the notorious Dalton bandits are encamped again near or on the famous Dalton farm near Kingfisher. Several gentlemen who were up from Kingfisher yesterday aver that the bandits have not been out of the territory since the Ingalls fight and that the Newcomb boys have been seen in Kingfisher.

Bill Dalton is said to be suffering intensely from the wounds received in the Ingalls battle and is being nursed by his aged mother and watched over by his pals, who refuse to allow strangers to go near the farm.

The outlaws had no intention of looting the city of Guthrie last Saturday, as they can do little without an able bodied leader. Arkansas Tom, who is confined in jail in this city, is still laughing over the 16th scare and says Guthrie people make him weary.

BRILLIANTS.

No man lives right who does not believe right.

There is no better excess in the world than the excess of gratitude. It is the struggle and not the attainment that measures character.

Next to acquiring good friends, the best acquisition is that of good books. Before a man can deliberately do anything wrong he has to convince himself that he has a good motive.

If our whole time was spent in amusing ourselves, we should find it more wearisome than the hardest day's work.

The man who undertakes to get rich at the expense of his conscience will not be long in finding out that he can't do it.

Why is it that when money is wanted for the church, most of the members think that somebody else ought to give it?

Our sins, like our shadows, when our day is in its glory, scarce appear. Toward our evening how great and monstrous they are.

Don't hang around and wait for somebody else to go ahead. Break your own path. Don't put off to-day's work until to-morrow, in hope that it will be done for you.

How many a man, by throwing himself to the ground in despair, crushes and destroys forever a thousand flowers of hope that were ready to spring up and gladden all his pathway.

Some people have no perspective in their conscience. Their moral convictions are the same on all subjects. They are like a reader who speaks every word with equal emphasis.

Nothing as much increases one's reverence for others as a great sorrow to one's self. It teaches one the depths of human nature. In happiness we are shallow, and deem others so.
